I hear the wrong that round me lies,
I feel the guilt within;
I hear, with groan and travail eerie,
The world confess its sin.
Yet, in the maddening maze of things,
And tossing by storm and flood,
To one fixed trust my spirit clings;
I know that God is good!

Hymn  Reinagle
1. In Christ there is no East or West, 2. In Him shall true hearts everywhere
In Him no South or North; Their high communion find;
But one great fellowship of love His service is the golden cord
Throughout the whole wide earth. Close binding all mankind.

3. Join hands, then, brothers of the faith, 4. In Christ now meet both East and West,
What-e'er your race may be, In Him meet South and North;
Who serves my Father as a son All Christly souls are one in Him
Is surely kin to me. Throughout the whole wide earth.

Hymn  Gardiner
1. Where cross the crowded ways of life, 2. In haunts of wretchedness and need,
Where sound the cries of race and clan, On shadowed thresholds dark with tears,
Above the noise of selfish strife, From paths where hide the lures of greed,
We hear Thy voice, O Son of man! We catch the vision of Thy tears.

3. O Master, from the mountain side, 4. Till sons of men shall learn Thy love
Make haste to heal these hearts of pain; And follow where Thy feet have trod;
Among these restless throngs abide, Till, glorious from Thy heaven above,
O tread the city's streets again. Shall come the city of our God!
